Agenda Items / Discussion	Action
Police Matters : Apology sent for non attendance – Report is appended
Foodbanks Report : Universal Credit implementation is having some impact on our workload . The issue would appear to be the initial role out/waiting time for payments which are leaving clients short of money and consequently food. However all clients have been provided for including a couple of emergency food parcels. Last week saw a heavier than normal demand , 11 clients and 1 emergency which has depleted our stocks at Wormit . As a result I asked Helen Lowe to put out an appeal on Facebook. My thanks to Helen . Having said this donations are still being gratefully received . If the Community Council can do anything to help we would be very grateful . D Myles – Foodbank Group
Finance Report : No change	.
Action Plan/Emergency Planning : Feedback from recent bad weather
Fife Council and Other Correspondence: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Tayport Day Centre for the Elderly seeking more clients to attend on Tuesdays. Discussed ways to attract more .
