- Annual Report from the Chair:

Thanks to all Community Councillors for their help over the past year , Flooding on the B946 at Spearshill/ Albert Road junction has been solved . Emergency repairs to Queen Street are beginning this week . I am suggesting more contact with other Groups in the town who may also wish to come and address us about their activities as the Baseball group has done .Also better use of our website should be explored .

Treasurer's Annual Report:

Copies of the accredited accounts were circulated and considered by members .The Bank Balance includes monies ring fenced for the Tay Bridgehead Community Council Forum Meeting expenses .The increasing cost of Christmas Lights is of concern and some possible sources of funding were raised . The acceptance of the Annual Accounts was proposed by D Myles and seconded by B de Smid .
